

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Group continues to commit itself to maintaining high standards of corporate governance principles and practices with an emphasis on enhancing transparency and accountability and ensuring the application of these principles and practices within the Group and thereby, enhancing shareholder value and benefiting our stakeholders at large.

During the year under review, the Company has complied with the code provisions as well as some recommended best practices of the Code on Corporate Governance Practices (“Code Provisions”) as set out in Appendix 14 to the Rules (“Listing Rules”) Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“the Hong Kong Stock Exchange”) except for the following deviations:

- A.4.1 – Non-executive Directors are not appointed for a specific term. They are, however, subject to retirement by rotation and re-election at least once every three years in accordance with the Company’s Bye-laws.
- A.4.2 – The Chairman and the Group Managing Director are not, while holding such office, subject to retirement by rotation or taken into account in determining the number of Directors to retire in each year. In the opinion of the Board, it is important for the stability and growth of the Company that there is, and is seen to be, continuity of leadership in these roles and, in consequence, the Board is of the view that both should not be subject to retirement by rotation or hold office for a limited term at the present time.

The Board is pleased to present the key corporate governance principles and practices followed by the Group during the year.

Business Integrity

Maintaining the highest professional and ethical standards is central to the Group's core operating philosophy. The Group has formally adopted a Code of Conduct (the "Code") addressing guiding principles governing conduct of Directors and senior employees. The Code is intended to establish minimum general standards of conduct encompassing the most common and sensitive areas in which the business operates.

In summary, executives of the Group are expected to:

- Conduct business of the Group in full compliance with both the letter and spirit of the Law and of the Code.
- Maintain the highest possible standards in the way we operate and the way we treat our employees in order to satisfy the expectations of both the business and social communities.
- Use confidential information properly.
- Recognize and avoid conflicts of interest.
- Protect the ownership of property of the Group, including information, products, rights and services.
- Conduct outside activities in a way which does not compromise the individual or the Group.

Communications with the Investment Community

The Company is committed to maintaining a continuing open dialogue with institutional investors and analysts to facilitate understanding of the group's management, financial position, operations, strategy and plans.

The Chairman and Chief Financial Officer have the prime responsibility for these activities, with the Chairman taking the lead in the period immediately following the interim and final results announcements.

Regular one-on-one meetings are held with the financial community which, in a number of instances, involve visits to production facilities.

The Company endeavours to be responsive to all media requests.
